April 15, 1938

Mr. F.D. Roosevelt
White House
Washington D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Concerning your radio address of April 14th: Who's hungry? Who's the possible dictator?

Why don't you discontinue being a smiling, wasteful and fickle prima donna politician.

This nation needs a practical and stable statesman. Be that one, with sober advisers. Observe proper respect for we sovereign People's Congress.

Yours very truly,

R. C. Phipps
